

Eugénia Cunha, born in Coimbra, Portugal, 19.05.1962, is a Full Professor, University of Coimbra, since 2003. She has been the National Consultant in Forensic Anthropology for the National Institute of Legal Medicine and Forensic Sciences in Portugal since 1997. Simultaneously she is the Forensic anthropologist of the South Delegation of National Institute of Legal Medicine and Forensic Sciences, Lisbon, Portugal, since 2004. She is co-founder and of FASE Forensic Anthropology Society of Europe, a sub-section of IALM, where she was President from 2009 to 2016 www.forensicanthropology.eu She is a fellow of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences. She is C-FASE- Honoris Causa Certified in Forensic Anthropology by FASE/IALM, International Academy of Legal Medicine, since 2014. She is founder and coordinator of the Forensic Anthropology Laboratory of Coimbra University. <http://laboratorioantropo4.wix.com/labantropoforeense>

She has 33 years of experience with human bones, both from past populations ( from Mesolithic to the 19th century) and forensic anthropology cases, and her background is Biology (University of Coimbra, 1984). She got a PhD in Sciences, Physical Anthropology, University of Coimbra, 1994. She has been doing Field and laboratorial work in Portugal; Brazil ( since 2000); Kenya (2011); Niamey (2011); East Timor (2003), Mali (2013), Mozambique (2014); Guinea (2008 to 2010).

She has been teaching and organizing Forensic Anthropology workshops/courses and advanced courses in several countries; Portugal, Brazil; Kosovo; Italy; Spain; Denmark; Turkey, Sri Lanka, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, Indonesia among others and she was the key-note speaker in more than one hundred conferences all over the world.

She is the Coordinator of the Post-Graduation in Forensic Anthropology, University of Coimbra, since 2011 and of the Masters on Skeletal Biology and Human Evolution, University of Coimbra, since 1998 until December 2017. She has been the advisor of 22 PhD Thesis, 16 of which already concluded.

Among others, she is Member of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences since 2001 and Founder member and scientific consultant of ABRAF- Associação Brasileira de Antropologia Forense (Brazilian Association of Forensic Anthropology), since 2014. Since 2014 she is Member of the roster of Justice for Rapid Response.

She has been publishing in peer review journals; she co-edited an international book on Forensic Anthropology in 2006 and published a national book on human evolution in 2010. Her publishing profile can be consulted at Google scholar profile: <http://scholar.google.pt/citations?user=HSGHLA0AAAAJ&hl=pt-PT>