Summary: CICASP Seminar 58
Bibliobattle 2/4

This is the second in the 'Bibliobattle' block of seminars. Six students each presented a book in 3-5 minutes, without powerpoint. There were a wide variety of books, both fiction and non-fiction. Each presenter used different strategies to 'sell' their chosen book to the audience. Afterwards, students, in groups, the means of presenting that had worked best and why. Afterwards, the audience voted on which book they most wanted to go out and read, and which presentation they judged the most persuasive. Makiko Take won the vote for most persuasive presentation.

Wednesday 31st May, 2017

Outline: CICASP Seminar 59
Bibliobattle 3/4

This time, students will present a paper that has inspired them. They will do their best to 'sell' their chosen paper to the audience, in the same style as for the 'bibliobattle'. Afterwards, we will discuss techniques used and vote on the most effective presentation.

Preparation: Preparation required for the next CICASP Seminar, May 31st

- Choose a paper to present in the 'bibliobattle' style. It can be on any topic; choose an academic article that you have found inspiring. It could be a study or a review. It can be a paper written in Japanese provided that you present in English.
- Prepare to 'sell' the paper to the audience; persuade them to read it.
- You will have 3-5 min, no powerpoint presentation.
- Email me an image of the front of the paper (.jpeg file, or similar), or at least send me the title and authors, by 2pm on May 31st.
