During 12nd to 14th, August, ‘Kids Jamboree 2014’ was opened in Marunouchi, Tokyo, and I participated in an experiential learning for children of this event, as a lecturer. We offered a hands-on learning of animal morphology, using mammal skulls. Also, in a small lecture for children on 13rd and 14th, I taught how to find fossils and how to identify them, using real bone material that I collected from cave sediments.
